Inlichtingen Nationaal Archief
Nationaal Archief

Greetings!... As you continue in reading, please be sure to know that it is not my intent for any to be offended:

With respect to Slavernijverleden | Nationaal Archief at https://www.nationaalarchief.nl/onderzoeken/zoekhulpen/slavernijverleden, it seems I'm unable to ascertain as to how the case studies, manuscripts, and artwork are relevant to individuals in the United States, as, from what I'm aware, there appears to be no matter in which the content (i.e., claims) on the documentation (i.e., manuscripts) shows as substantiated scientifically (i.e., DNA (deoxyribonucleic acid), NGS (next generation sequencing), CT (computer tomography)) in relation to even some Negroes in the United States. Although, it is not my intention to uphold such strict standards whereby it serves as an inconvenience to any supplying whatever information it is, it is my intention to grasp a gist as to whether or not the "information", or, rather, artwork, in enough cases, is strictly to that of which has been alleged in order to ward off any potential/probable/possible propaganda.

Should there have been any scientific studies and/or reports – without motive or agenda, I'd be interested in receiving information as to if there is a continuity of the claims whereby individuals, rather descendants, may prove biologically, and by uncorrupted documentation, the matters are as alleged.

Please note that my concerns are that of my own, and, therefore, may not necessarily be reflective of how others would view them.

> Please refer to our finding aid regarding slavery here on our website: https://www.nationaalarchief.nl/onderzoeken/zoekhulpen/slavernijverleden. At the top of the page there is an option to automatically translate the page into English.

Your consideration is appreciated & Thanks...

'`~Respectfully,

Krista Dandridge-Barnett
